

LITERARY TERMS: IMAGERY

Directions: Provide an example, either by quotation or summary, for each term and make note of the source. Memorize each definition in preparation for the AP English Literature Exam.

Auditory: a literal representation of an sound experience, or an object that can be known by the sense of sound

Example: _____

Source: _____

Gustatory: a literal representation of a taste experience, or an object that can be known by the sense of taste

Example: _____

Source: _____

Olfactory: a literal representation of a smelling experience, or an object that can be known by the sense of smell

Example: _____

Source: _____

Tactile: a literal representation of a touch experience, or an object that can be known by the sense of touch

Example: _____

Source: _____

Visual: a literal representation of a sight experience, or an object that can be known by the sense of sight

Example: _____

Source: _____